

Rule 13

Section 1: Valuation of Bonds and Securities

In preparing the annual financial statements of insurers as well as any other financial statement, bonds and securities that are owned and maintained by the insurer as eligible and legal investments will be valued according to the procedures and instructions in the Valuation of Securities Manual published by the Committee on Valuation of Securities, National Association of Insurance Commissioners.