

Rule 32

Educational Equivalence

Dossier 1053, Sept. 30, 1966

Section 1

All applications for a license shall include evidence of the highest level of education reached by the applicant, in the case of individuals, and by the persons acting on behalf of the entity applying for the license, in the case of legal persons. This evidence may be a photocopy of the diploma, a certified copy of the academic record of the highest level passed or a letter addressed to the Commissioner of Insurance of Puerto Rico by the Secretary of Education certifying the highest grade passed by the applicant or a certification by the Secretary of Education of Puerto Rico that the person has otherwise complied with the educational requirement.

Section 2

Any person who applies for a solicitor, agent, broker or adjuster license and who cannot provide the evidence required in Section 3 of this Rule in order to comply with the requirement of equivalence of academic degrees as specified in the Code, must pass the examinations offered by the Department of Education for ninth grade and senior year of high school equivalency.
