Circular Letter No. CAE-5-600-74
May 22, 1974

TO ALL INSURANCE COMPANIES LICENSED TO DO BUSINESS
IN PUERTO RICO

Dear Sirs:

In order to put to an end the problem of knowing the latest official address of the companies doing business in Puerto Rico, we are hereby sending you a form to be filed in our offices no later than June 10, 1974. Please be advised that the address filed in the form enclosed in this letter shall be had as the only official address of your company by our office.

We wish to inform that this filing shall be free of cost to your Company. However, any change of address done after the filing of this form shall be at the complete expense of the company according to Section 701(1)(h) of the Puerto Rico Insurance Code as amended by Law 98, June 1973, which stipulates a fee of $15 for such change of address.

Cordially yours,

Miguel B. Morell
